Interstate Commerce Commission Orders Slash in Railroad Freight Charges, Wednesday, Which Will Permit Return On Properties of 5 3-4 Per Cent.

bility of the voluntary slashing of railroad freight rates desired by Presi-

FIVE DIE WHEN CAUGHT IN GAS SEWER 'POCKET'

Three Firemen and Two City Employees of Milwaukee Killed.

Milwaukee, May 24.—Five men were killed and two others seriously injured when they were trapped in a gas "pocket" in a sewer here today.

The dead are three firemen and two city employees. Only one of them, Matthias H. Wambach, has been identified.

A laborer first went down into the sewer which is ninety feet below the street level. He did not return. A second laborer went down to investigate. He did not return.

The fire department was then called.
Three firemen descended into the sewer but failed to come up.

A general alarm was given and a rescuing squad wearing gas helmets went down after the missing men. They brought up the five bodies. Two of the rescuers were overcome.

DARLINGTON NOT WILLING TO RESIGN POST FOR CONGRESS

With the visits in Xenia of one probable and one certain candidate for the nomination for congressman from the district this week, political followers have turned questioning eyes on Attorney C. L. Darlington as to his intentions in this coming race for congress.

Following the visit of Judge Frank Geiger, of Springfield Tuesday and the appearance of Senator Charles Brand of Urbana Wednesday, the Gazette and The Republican obtained the following statement from Mr.
Darlington in which he makes clear that his present interest and affiliation is with the American Legion.

Mr. Darlington said:
"In view of the many inquiries I am receiving as to whether or not I will be a candidate for Congress in this district, it seems that I should put in black and white what I have said privately to my friends.

"The constitution of The American Legion provides that no one can hold an office in the Legion who is a candidate for political office. This means that if I become a candidate for Congress I would have to resign as State Commander of The American Legion, which I am unwilling to do. For the past three years I have given much of my time, and during the last year almost all of my time, and without compensation and at considerable expense, to help build up the Legion.
I should I resign to run for political office. I fear it would be said that I was trying to use the Legion for political purposes and I might in that way injure the organization which I have been trying to help."

VICTORIES GAINED

Prestwick, Scotland, May 24.— America's two remaining entrants in the British amateur golf tournament came through with victories today over their British opponents and thereby went into the third round.

John G. Anderson, of Stoney
(New York) defeated G. C. Whigham
3 and 2.

Edward Van Vleet of Garden City, Long Island, defeated R. Foster, 4 and 2.

FRANCE POSTPONES DEBT FUNDING PLAN WITH U. S.; J. P. MORGAN ATTENDS MEETING

Paris, May 24.—France has decided to postpone indefinitely the sending of her official treasury commission to the United States to negotiate the funding of the French debt of more than $3,000,000,000.

This was learned officially today coincidentally with the meeting of the international bankers here to discuss additional loans to France and also to Germany.

J. P. Morgan is the outstanding figure in the meeting of the bankers, which began at 11 o'clock in the hotel Astoria with M. Delacour of Belgium presiding.

J. P. Morgan has become the most conspicuous man in the public eyes since his arrival here for the conference of international bankers. The press is virtually unanimous in saying that if Morgan says "yes" the bankers will agree to a loan for Germany.

Also, it is up to Morgan to say how much money the Germans shall get.

Now that the American government has declined to deal with Europe, Morgan the biggest American banker, has become the chief representative American in Europe.

It is believed in many quarters that the bankers will agree to a loan on condition that Germany meets certain requirements.

The commission estimated that the new rates would render the railroads a return on the properties of approximately 5.75 per cent "under honest, efficient and economical management, and reasonable expenditures for maintenance of way, structures and equipment."

The new reductions were effected by ordering decrease in the horizontal rate increases authorized by the commission on August 26, 1920.

Rates, which have been reduced since that date are not affected by today's order, remaining at their present level.

Chairman McChord, of the commission, agreed to the reduction of rates but expressed the opinion that the fixed return of the railroads should be 5.5 per cent instead of 5.75 per cent.

"I think that the times and conditions plainly demand reductions in rates on all materials and products that are basic in industry and in our existence as a people to a level that business interests will recognize as the lowest available for some time to come," McChord said.

"In my judgment the general reductions now decreed fall short of full attainment of the desired end. The record convinces me that the present level of rates on the basic articles is now operating as a serious burden upon commerce and should be materially reduced and that upon a considerably lower level of rates with an induced higher level of traffic activity, not only will the carriers secure more net revenue but the prosperity of the country as a whole will be greatly enhanced. The pulse of industry and transportation is still below normal although there is and has been for several months, marked improvement."

McChord also said that reductions on the general basis outlined by him should be applied likewise to passenger fares, which were not considered in the decision handed down today.

"You ain't gwine away and leave me here, is you," said Henry Skinner, 33, colored, East Main Street, when taken to the Dayton Work House, Tuesday.

Skinner was fined $100 and costs by Police Judge E. D. Smith on a charge of selling liquor and in default of his fine and costs, was taken to the Dayton Work House by Lieutenant of Police Mangan and Patrolman Clark Stethem.

The trip was made in the shiny new city car and Skinner must have thought he was bound for a pleasure ride, until he saw the officers get in the machine to return.

ATTEND EXERCISES AT WESTERN COLLEGE TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. Moser went to Oxford Tuesday where they were in at the Western College. Their daughter Miss Anita and her college mate Miss Josephine McKenny, who had been spending the week end in this city, returned with them to Western where they are students. They were also accompanied by Miss Eleanor Bratton, a Western student who had spent the week end in this city with her grandmother, Mrs. James Bratton, of North Galloway street.

G. O. P. Candidates Will Back up Harding Record

Senator J. E. Watson, of Indiana, in Speech at Indianapolis Declares Office Seekers Will Stand Four Square On Present Administration.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 24.—In a speech before the Republican state convention here today that was generally regarded as "keynoting" the Republican campaign in this year's congressional elections, Senator J. E.
Watson, of Indiana made it perfectly apparent that Republican candidates generally are going to stand foursquare on their record of the Harding administration.

The national administration, Watson said, needs no apologist and the and achievements is the surest vindication of its accomplishments.

Watson significantly or otherwise assured his hearers that the soldier bonus would pass and be signed at this session of congress. He has been frequently in conference with the president at Washington while preparing his speech.

"The administration's success in the work of reconstruction, restoration and rehabilitation can be measured only by the magnitude of the obstacles it was necessary to surmount before the return to normalcy could be achieved," Senator Watson declared.

"Surely the future historian will declare that no administration ever before came into power confronting problems of such complexity and difficulty as those which were inherited by President Harding and the republican congress. Who will charge that we have been remiss in the discharge of our obligations to the people. Even if this charge were true it is better to do nothing than always to do wrong. Better Republican watchful indifference than a debt-incurring, deficit-creating bond-issuing, surplusscattering, factory-closing, industryparalyzing, prosperity-destroying, social-upheaving, cataclysm-producing Democratic administration."

TRADE TREATY BETWEEN ITALY AND RUSSIA MADE

ROME, May 24.—A trade treaty between Italy and Soviet Russia was signed here today.

The Russian signature was attached by Georges Tchitcherine who headed the Russian delegation to the late Genoa conference. Tchitcherine is spending a few days in Rome and will later take a health cure at Naples before returning to his post as minister of foreign affairs at Moscow.

Nations Seek Information On Chemical Warfare

Seven Countries Ask U. S. for Methods on Manufacture of Poison Gas Since Treaty at Disarmament Conference

Washington, May 24.—Since the treaty prohibiting the use of poison gas was signed at the arms conference, no less than seven countries have sought information from the United States concerning methods of chemical warfare. It was learned at the war department today.

One of these nations, Great Britain is a party to the treaty condemning chemical warfare; the others are not, and according to officials, have given every indication that they have no intention of subscribing to it. British officers who have recently completed a study of the army chemical warfare plant at Edgewood arsenal, Md., made no secret of the intention of the British army to continue its experimentation with poison gas.

Thus, while the United States has reduced funds available for the development of chemical warfare from $2,500,000 to $500,000 war department officials point out practically every other power of any consequence is pushing research and development work at top speed.

"Our information is that other nations are sparing no expense or effort in their experiments with chemical warfare gases and protective devices," said Brig. Gen. Amos A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare services of the army.

"Respective of treaties, no country can afford to give up such development and research work as will enable it to discover what gases are capable of being used, in what quantities, and how economically they can be produced in warfare, and what protective masks and clothing can be devised against them. At the same time it should be prepared to use similar methods in case of attack from an enemy not a party to the treaty or refusing to adhere to it.

FLIGHT AROUND WORLD BY AIRPLANE BEGINS; WILL TAKE NINETY DAYS

Major A. T. Blake, and Two Companions Leave London
Wednesday on First Leg of Trip Which May Go Down in History.

London, May 24.—The first attempt to fly around the world by airplane was begun today when Major A. T. Blake hopped off at Croyden aerodrome in a D. H. 9 machine.
Major Blake hopes to complete his epochal flight in ninety days. It successful he expects to go down in history along with other great voyages, such as Columbus, Raleigh and Drake and he is confident of success. The aviators took the air at 2:05 o'clock.

The signal to start was given by General Branker, director of aviation.

Major Blake is accompanied on his flight by Captain Norman Macmillan and Lieut. Col. L. E. Brooke.
The DH-9 selected by Major Blake for the first leg of the round the world flight is a three seater, driven by a 230 horse power Siddeley Puma engine.

"I expect to use the same plane all the way from London to Calcutta," Major Blake said. "The route lies over Paris, Rome, Athens, Crete, Alexandria, Bagdad, Basra, Kara
Chi and Delhi. At Calcutta the DH-9 machine will be exchanged for a Fairley-3 seaplane, fitted with a 360 horsepower Rolls-Royce engine.

In this machine we hope to fly via Rangoon, Bangkok, Saigon and Hongkong then to Japan and from Japan to Petropavlosk, the Aleutian islands Alaska and Vancouver. That will be the most difficult part of the journey as we shall have to encounter bad monsoon weather in Burma and fogs in the north Pacific.

"At Vancouver, we shall pick up another three seater DH-9 and travel in it via Winnipeg, Chicago, New York and New Foundland.

"At St. Johns we shall transfer to an F.3, flying boat with two 360 horsepower Rolls Royce engines and complete the journey by way of Greenland, Iceland, the Faroe islands, Scotland and back to London. We hope to complete the entire trip in about three months.

A large crowd gathered at Croyden aerodrome and cheered lustily as the powerful machine rose sky-ward. The government ministry of aviation was represented. Major

Blake and his companions received numerous messages wishing them success and a safe voyage.

A flotilla of tugs will be sent to the Aleutian islands and to other vantage points where there is a sea passage. The machine will all be equipped with wireless so that the men can keep in constant touch with land while aloft.

Major Blake has arranged for especially constructed flying boats as a measure of safety in event he and his companions are obliged to alight while flying over stormy weather.

Increased interest, was taken in the start of the flight due to the fact that this is empire day and visitors were gathered in London from all parts of the British empire.

Major Blake served in the royal flying corps during the war. Since the war he has continued flying.
Captain Macmillan is an expert on aviation mechanics. Lieut. Colonel Broome, is civil engineer by profession. He will direct the photographic work.

WOOD IS SAFE ON ISLAND AS TYPHOON OVER

General Reported to Have Been On Water When Big Storm Came Up.

San Francisco, May 24.—A message from Manila to the U. S. naval radio station here today said that Manila evening papers reported the safe arrival of Governor General Leonard Wood and his family on the island of Mindora. Great anxiety had been felt for their safety due to the fact that a typhoon had swept the island waters shortly after they left on a pleasure and inspection cruise in a small yacht.

Mindora is a small island and the seat of several sugar plantations. It is believed here that the storm probably disabled the islands wireless apparatus and thus held up news of safety of the governor general and party.

SEEK TO PREVENT DELAY ON BONUS

Washington, May 24.—Senator McCumber, of North Dakota, chairman of the senate finance committee went to bat today on the soldiers' bonus with other Republican members of the committee and demanded that there be no further delay in disposing of it.

McCumber announced subsequently that he would call the full Republican and Democratic membership of the committee together before the week end for the purpose of reporting a soldiers bonus bill to the senate.

MURPHY INDICTED ON MURDER CHARGE

Chicago, May 24.—Indictments charging murder were returned by the state grand jury today against
"Big Tim" Murphy, Fred (Frenchy) Mader, Cornelius (Con) Shea—known as the "big three" in the recent labor reign of terror in Chicago —and five others, one a woman.

The eight were indicted for the murder of acting Lieutenant Ter-rance Lyons, one of two policemen killed in the recent bombing outrages.

All of them were ordered held without bail.

CAPTURE BANDITS AFTER HOLD UP

Bridgeport, Conn., May 24.—Within an hour after the hold up and robbery of Sidney Tibbals Connecticut company, cashier of $12,000, payroll money in this city this forenoon, the four bandits who committed the robbery were captured and the stolen money recovered.

One of the men was found dead in the automobile in which the bandits made their escape the other man was captured in an attempt to escape from the car a short distance from where it was overhauled. Two others were caught on the railroad track between Stratford and Milford by officers who pursued the bandits.

IRISH WARFARE MAY RESULT IN BRITISH ACTION

Great Britain Discussing Intervention In Ulster Situation.

CONDITIONS CHAOTIC

Break Between North and South Ireland Widened
By Trouble.

London, May 24.—With civil war smouldering in Ireland, British official, today began canvassing the possibility of English intervention on the Ulster frontier. Premier Lloyd George and Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill, who are handling the Irish situation on behalf of the London government, are hopeful that representatives of the free state and Ulster will come here for a conference, but this hope is not universally shared.

According to present plans, Sir James Craig, premier of the Ulster government, will be summoned to London at the end of the week to discuss the possibilities of a truce between orangemen and Sinn Feiners with a peace treaty as an eventuality.

Michael Collins, of the Irish provisional government, already has been summoned.

It is probable that the government will be interpellated on the Irish situation when Premier Lloyd George appears before the house of commons tomorrow.

Conditions in Ireland are growing more chaotic, not only through the hostility of the orangemen and Sinn Feiners in Ulster, but as a result of the uncertainty over the coalition agreement, reached by the free state, and the Republicans.

The English are not certain what the results of the Collins-Devalera agreement will be, and they fear that the Anglo-Irish treaty will be impaired in consequence. It is evident, that the agreement has brought the hostile Sinn Fein factions together and if war comes, they will present a solid front to Ulster.

The break between north and south Ireland has been widened by the action of Sir James Craig in breaking off all relation, with the Ulster boundary commission.

The Ulster premier has announced that he will not have any direct relations with the free state. This, however does not prevent indirect negotiations through London. Late advices from Belfast say that Tuesday's estimate that 1,500 Sinn Feiners were arrested in the province—wide round up in Ulster was exaggerated—and that the total number probably does not exceed 500. Religious feeling is running high and reprisals are feared.

Belfast, May 24.—Irish republican troops are concentrating upon the Ulster boundary and invasion of this province was again threatened today as a result of the arrest of hundreds of Sinn Feiners, and republicans. It was reported from Drumakeel that republican soldiers were being massed in that district and that they were armed for active service.

At some points along the frontier bridges have been blown up to prevent movements of the Ulster constantulary and the British troops quartered in the province. Roads were blocked by barricades and railway tracks torn up.

SIGNING OF TRADE PACT IS DELAYED

Rome, May 24.—Representatives of Italy and soviet Russia today came to an agreement on a trade treaty, but at the last minute the signing of the pact was delayed. The delay was taken to enable the Russians to ask the Moscow government for formal approval of certain concessions for Italian ships. The decision to postpone signing the treaty was made after announcement had been given that the agreement was signed.

George Tchitcherine, head of the Russian delegation in the Genoa conference and Commissar for foreign affairs in the soviet government came to Rome especially to sign the document. He will go to Naples for a rest before leaving for Moscow.

DAYTON POLICEMEN CHARGED WITH THEFT

Dayton, May 24.—Charges of burglary and larceny will be filed against Police Officer William Gant, 31, 1635 West First Street, following his confession Wednesday that he looted more than a score of local stores during the past six or seven months, stealing merchandise valued at $2,500.

Officer H. W. Jackson, 1013 Troy Street, who confessed to having assisted Gant in robbing one store, has been suspended from the police department. No charges will be filed against him in court, as a police official believe he was the victim of circumstances. His punishment consist of dismissal from the force.

NO REST--NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Xenia people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

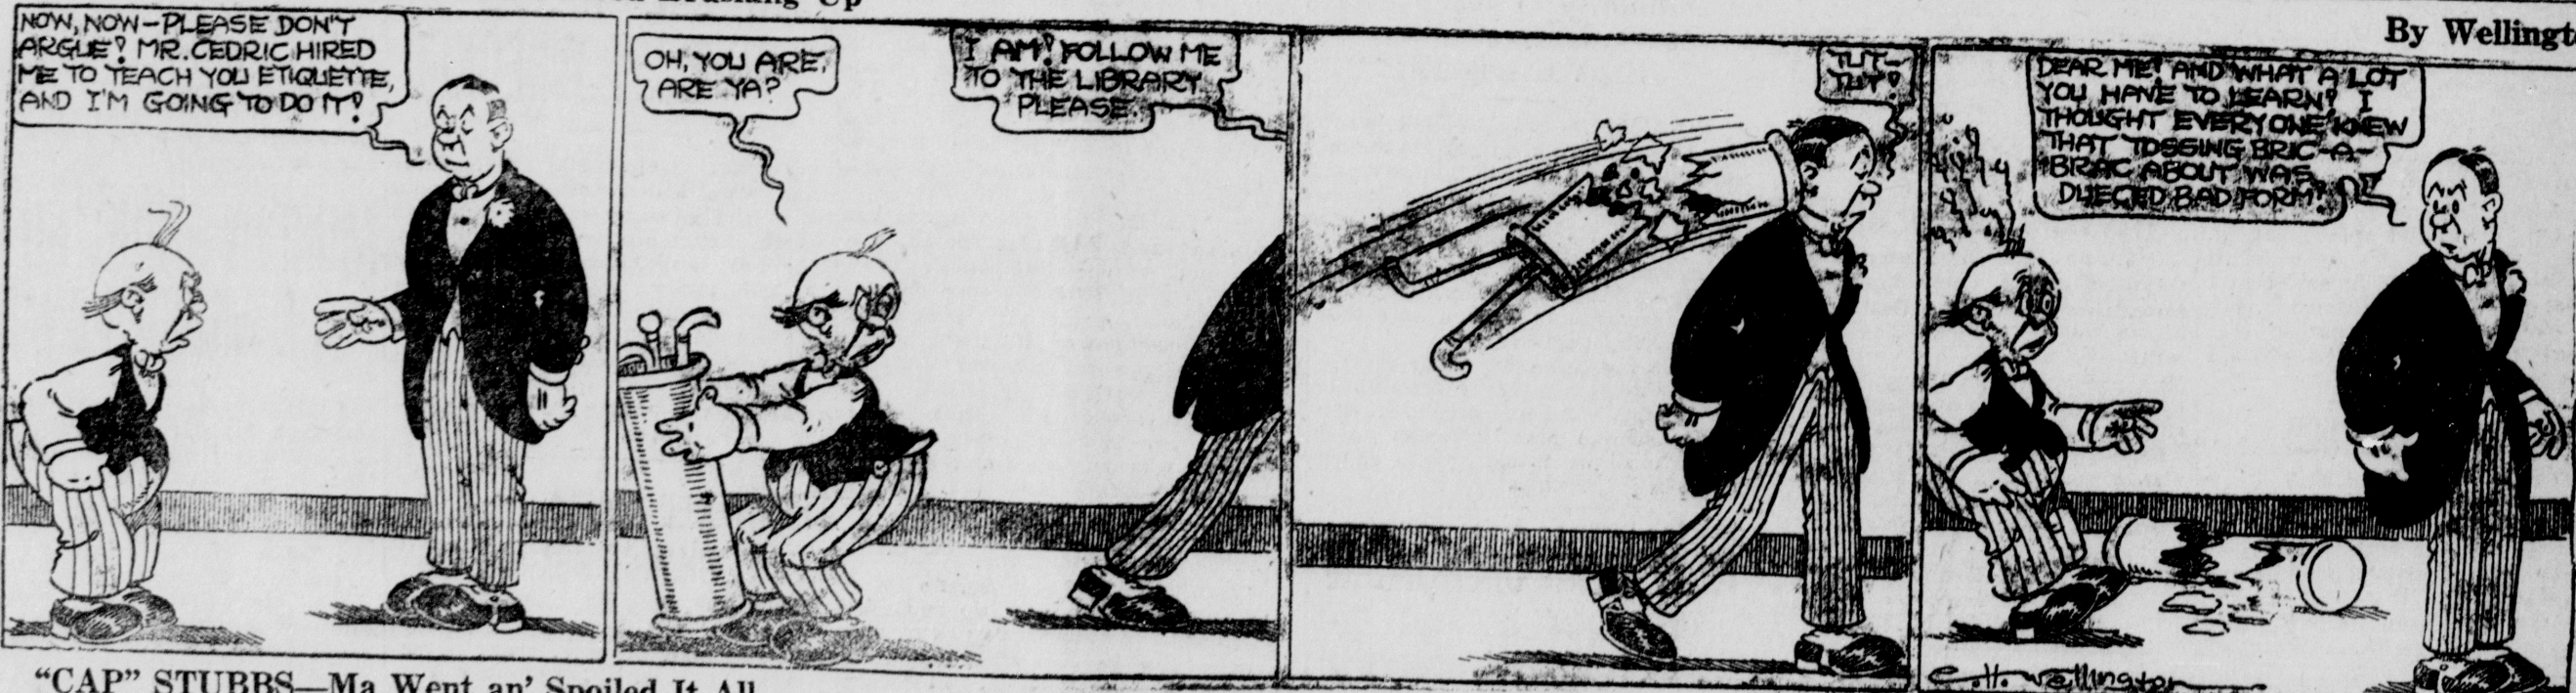

Mrs. David Pohl, 751 W. Second St., Xenia, gave the following statement Aug. 2, 1917: "I suffered with lame back, but the most annoying symptoms was their regular action or my kidneys. I felt languid when I arose in the morning and it seemed I never could get any rest. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Dones's Drug Store, and they helped me immediately and the second box cured me entirely."

On Aug. 16, 1921, Mrs. Pohl said: "I am glad to again say that Doan's Kidney Pills are the one reliable kidney remedy that cured me of kidney trouble some years ago. I have had no further occasion to use Doan's but I am glad to confirm the statement I gave in 1917 in behalf of this remedy."

SENDS TANLAC TO RELATIVES IN ENGLAND

Ohio Woman Herself Gains 11 Pounds And Says She Feels Better Than When She Was 16 Years Old.

"I think so much of Tanlac I have just bought two bottles to send to relatives in England," said Miss Anna Stegwarth, R. F. D. 32, Barborton, Ohio. "Nervous indigestion had almost made a wreck of me before I knew it. All the troubles that go with a bad stomach attacked me. I had little desire for food and often would turn so sick at the table I had to leave it. What little I ate caused trouble in my stomach and hurt me all over. Sometimes I had such bad smothering spells I'd have to gasp for breath. I tried lots of medicines but just kept going from bad to worse. "Tanlac proved to be what I needed for I have gained eleven pounds and feel even better than I did when I was sixteen. Tanlac is a great medicine and I am glad to tell others what it did for me." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

SPEED COPS STOP CAR FROM XENIA; SPEEDOMETER OFF

Proof that the speedometers on the motorcycles of speed officers are not always correct, was given by Mrs. Rachel J. Kelly, Tuesday when she was stopped by two speed officers on the Dayton and Xenia pike just over the Montgomery County line on the charge that she was driving her machine at 44 miles an hour.

Mrs. Kelly insisted that she was not doing over 30 and demanded a comparison test of the speedometers. The tests showed that when Mrs. Kelly's speedometer registered 30 miles an hour, the instrument on the motorcycle alongside showed 44 miles an hour.

The officers told Mrs. Kelly that her speedometer must be wrong and she was ordered to appear before a justice of the peace in Harshmanville. This Mrs. Kelly refused to do and after taking her name and address the officers permitted her to resume her trip saying that she would get a summons later.

With the aid of a friend in Dayton, Mrs. Kelly was able to secure a comparison test, with machines used by the Dayton police department for trapping speeders and the regulated speedometers showed that Mrs. Kelly's instrument was accurate.

A number of Xenians have been ordered to report to the justice of the peace office in Harshmanville or have been warned by the speed officers along that section of the pike.

Mrs. Kelly said Wednesday that she saw the officers who were standing at the side of the pike when she passed them.

COST PROHIBITIVE DECLARES BRAND

Declaring that his opposition to hard surface county highways is based on the cost of construction, and that his aim is to protect the interests of the smaller communities by urging the use of native materials, State Senator Charles Brand of Urbana, candidate for congressman from this district, in Xenia, Wednesday, said in an interview that he was not opposed to hard surface roads in heavily travelled pikes but rather was fighting the policy of that kind of road making where the expense is not justified.

He pointed out that such roads in large counties do not cost the taxpayers as much as in the smaller communities, where he maintains the expense is too great to be shouldered by the land owners and taxpayers.

The use of native materials in building gravel roads, he said, insures a good pike, if properly kept up and saves expense of the hard surface road, the cost of which he says is still too high.

Senator Brand was in Washington recently to make a report to President Harding on agricultural and business conditions in Ohio as a member of the committee in charge of government loans to banks and co-operative companies, for agricultural purposes.

Senator Brand will address a meeting of the Community Club in Waynesville, Wednesday evening.

WEEKLY CONCERTS MAY BE OFFERED

Because the Chamber of Commerce band will not be available for concert work this summer, the band concert committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Karl Bloom, will attempt to have weekly concerts given by bands from outlying communities and villages in Greene County.

The Chamber of Commerce Band will disband, according to members because of the loss of its leader, W. E. Currie who will retire from the directorship of the band.

Miss Janice Owens, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday, wrote to the mayors in nine Greene County villages, asking them for information concerning local bands. The letters were sent to New Burlington, Clifton, Osborn, Fairfield, Spring Valley, Waynesville, Jamestown, Cedarville and Yellow Springs.

It is the plan of the concert committee to bring one of these bands to Xenia each week for concerts on the Court House Square.

HARDING APPROVES NAVY TRIP TO JAPAN.

President Harding poured a broadside into the congressional cheese-parers, led by Senator McCormick, Republican, of Illinois, who oppose sending the transport Henderson to Japan with Annapolis graduates of 1881.

The Administration, it was emphatically stated, "heartily approves" of the expedition, and particularly of Secretary Denby's participation in it. The President "would have been grievously disappointed" if his Secretary of the Navy had been prevented from going to Japan.

Incidentally the President took occasion to express some vigorous views on the subject of penny-wise policy with regard to international amenities. He considers the Annapolis reunion in Japan such "a friendly gesture" and so valuable from every standpoint that Mr. Harding gladly would have footed the Henderson's oil-fuel bill himself rather than that the trip should not be made at all.

It is the White House view that Uncle Sam is too big and too rich to haggle over whether one of his ships burns a ton more or less of fuel, when it is a question of "doing the right thing" by a friendly foreign nation. Mr. Harding considers it is one of the national Administration's functions to further just such movements as the Henderson's Annapolis voyagers are promoting—to solidify international good will fellowship and relationship.

The Henderson sailed from Hampton Roads Monday on a scheduled trip to the Orient. She will carry the usual cargo and a large number of enlisted men and officers and replacements for men connected with the Asiatic fleet and naval stations. Twenty-four Annapolis alumni of the class of 1881 and Secretary Denby will comprise the party going to Japan for a reunion with Admiral Uriu, who was graduated from the Naval Academy forty-one years ago.

THE AGE OF JUDGES.

There is much to be said for the decision attributed to President Harding, to appoint no more federal judges over 60 years of age. He is said to have followed this rule in every appointment so far with the exception of Justice Taft. That case is held, rightly enough, to justify itself. Generally speaking, however, some age limit is desirable.

There was a good deal of Oslerism, after all, when rightly understood. Osler's idea was that men's minds "set" early and they seldom produce new ideas after the age of 40, and so are not useful after that age as contributors to human progress. Whether he developed that notion before or after 40 is not recorded. Some have gone much further and questioned whether anyone is capable of developing or grasping any fundamentally new idea after he is 20—that is, an idea of which he did not have at least the germ before he reached that age.

It may be argued, reasonably enough, that most of the work of judges does not demand originality—that it involves rather the sifting on of the accumulated wisdom of society as a whole, that the wisdom of mature age and experience on the part of an individual is necessary to make a good judge. Elderly men usually make better judges than young men, for this very reason. But there are other requisites of the judicial mind that are important, especially a sustained freshness and power of appreciating changes in the spirit of the time, in order to interpret the law as a living thing from living people. Middle-age men can do this better than old men.

SOFT DRINKS NOT FOOD.

After reading a lengthy article in the Literary Digest on "The Food Value of Soft Drinks," the average reader comes to the conclusion that "there ain't none." Fruit juices are useful, when they are real fruit juices and not artificial concoctions. Sugar has a certain food value. But there doesn't seem to be enough real nutriment in all the soft drinks one might reasonably wish to partake of during a summer to make one square meal.

This is not necessarily any argument against soft drinks. Why should they have food value? That isn't what one takes them for. If they are cool and wet and made of materials which are not in themselves harmful—that is to say if they quench thirst and taste good and minister to comfort, without upsetting the digestion or jangling the nerves or starting any bad habits, isn't that enough?

The ice cream soda or sundae with real fruit and nuts in it, and made of real milk or cream, is in a different class. That is food. But as for ginger ale and sarsaparilla and carbonated grape juice—sufficient are they unto themselves. Nobody wants them to be as nourishing as a beefsteak dinner. A pleasant tinkling sound as they approach, a pleasant taste, a lingering sense of coolness and refreshment—the scientist and dietitian who isn't satisfied with that much does not deserve any.

A BUYING NEIGHBOR TO BE CULTIVATED.

The bureau of foreign and domestic commerce announces that Mexico is becoming a better field for American enterprise than ever before.

Some of the indications of improvement in conditions since the revolution are to be found in our own increased exports to Mexico. In 1920 Mexico bought 65 locomotives of us, valued at $866,000. In 1921 the number rose to 357, with a total value of $10,675,000. The value of passenger automobiles exported to Mexico rose from $3,500,000 to $5,183,000. American exports of commercial automobiles slumped in every Latin-American country except Mexico. There, too, bleached cotton goods, printed cotton and dyed yarns held their own as they did in South American land.

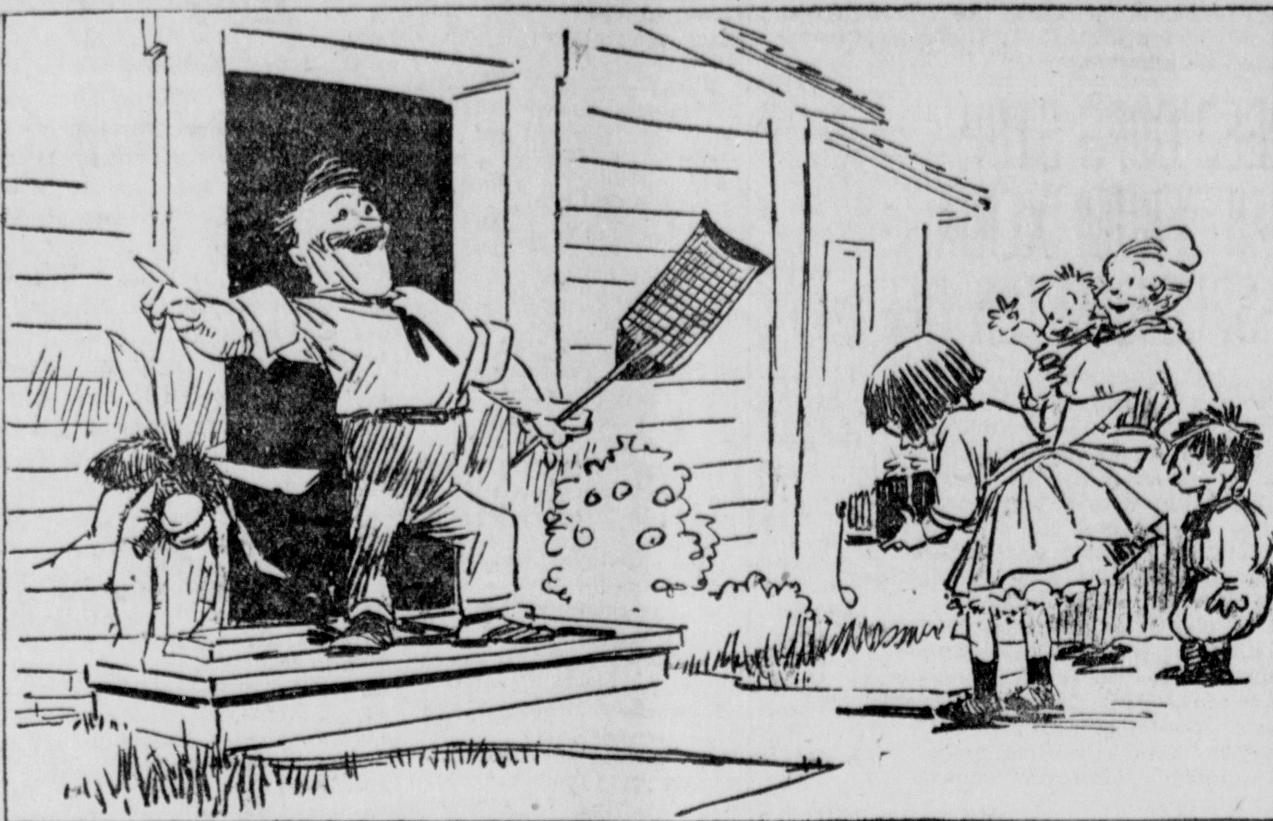

Mexico, like Canada, is a foreign market which this country should not slight or overlook. Because of its position as next-door neighbor it is a logical customer and one easily reached at little expense.

THAT OMNIPOTENT WILL OF YOURS

Wealth and success are in a large measure, expressions of use and work. You must use the talents which you have and work out your own salvation if you fully appreciate and understand the happiness which naturally follows.

He who does not earn his dollar has no idea of its value. He who has never known flat failure has little idea of real success.

Greater than all the instruments at your command is your will. Your will bears a motor relation to your other faculties. It sits in council. But while it operates behind closed doors, there is no secrecy about its moves. Soon or later the entire world is able to judge of its power and admire its extent of operation.

A GOOD WORLD.

Oh, everything is bully in this gay world of ours, and all my paths are fully begarlanded with flowers. It's true I have the measles, the shingles and a wen, and bobcats, skunks or weasels have killed my old gray hen; but illness or reverses can't make me sprinkle tears, or hand out vulgar curses that might offend your ears. Cold winds no longer hound us, and balmy winds come through. The day is bright and smiling, and any man's a swine who stands around reviling a world so good and fine. It's true my teeth are aching and certain joints are sore, where rheumatiz is making itself a beastly bore; it's true my spotted helper has foot and mouth disease—but oh, that scented zephyr, that fragrant vernal breeze! It comes from lands of spices, from islands in the sea, and in a brace of trices, it brings relief to me! This good old world we dwell in, in which we play our game, and paw around and yell in, is all the blue prints claim. Sometimes the skies are cloudy, and winds chant sad laments, sometimes the days are dowdy, and look like fourteen cents; but take things all together, the world is bright and fair; and much I question whether it's equaled anywhere.

FLAPPERS OF 1922 DEFENDED BY NEW YORK DOCTOR WHO SAYS THEY ARE IMPROVEMENT OVER ANCESTORS

New York, May 24.—"Flappers of 1922, despite their rumored jazzy existence will make the best mothers we have known for many generations. Dr. Josephine Baker, head of New York City's children's bureau declared today to International News Service.

Furthermore she said she was glad to make a defense of the modern girl in face of the many unkind and unreasonable criticisms levelled at her by press, public and public in general.

"The old fogies, both men and women, who never see good in anything, now have the modern girl for their favorite topic, morning, noon and night," asserted Dr. Baker indignantly.

"The same people were just as busy fifty years ago decrying the young women of that period. They must have a subject to talk about. It used to be the girl who wore corsets—now it is the corsetless damsel.

"Never were girls dressing so sensibly and getting such a good viewpoint of life as our girls of today. They are better able—mentally and physically—to bear and rear children than their mothers. "Rumor has told me time and again how terribly the girls of 1922 were drinking, smoking and being participants in 'petting parties' and worse than all—the brevity of their costumes.

"Let me say that I have never witnessed any but a few young women—the extremes—drinking. Smoking is a matter of manners rather than morals and will not hurt their children. They only put in public where girls used to in private. Their dress is sensible and allows them to use their bodies as their God meant them to—untrammelled by skirts and furbelows.

"Better still," continued the doctor, they know life and all it means. That is their best protection. Their children will be wanted and welcomed. I am for the girl of today, the mother of tomorrow."

TRADE TREATY NOT PLANNED
Washington, May 24.—The United States is not now negotiating and is entertaining no thought of negotiating a trade with Russia at this time, it was stated authoritatively at the White House today.

BEAUTY CHATS

IF YOU ARE SLEEPLESS

One of the worst things in the world is to be troubled with sleeplessness. Everyone has his own patent cure for it, just as everyone has his own pet remedy for a cold in the head, seasickness or croupy children. Here are several suggestions, all of which can be tried together. They are based on simple well known medi-

A midnight meal promotes sleep. Cal and psychological facts. I think they will cure you of sleeplessness as I know they have cured many other sufferers.

If you feel sleepless at bed time take a hot drink and eat a couple of crackers. Personally, I advise hot milk or hot chocolate. But if you are reducing you may not want the extra nourishment of these, and in that case drink a large glass of very hot water. However, very few fat people are troubled with sleeplessness. Those who lie awake are thin ones.

The theory of this is that the hot drink draws the blood from the brain to the stomach, making the brain quieter and less active. Some people find hot chocolate too stimulating to drink at bedtime, and many people find hot weak tea soothing. Choose whichever drink quiets you most.

Then lie comfortably in a cool dark room. Force yourself to banish from your head all disturbing or unpleasant thoughts. This isn't easy, in fact this is the hardest part of the treatment. I find that the best way to accomplish it is to begin to imagine all sorts of pleasant things as happening; people I would like to meet; places I should like to travel to, a new dress I should like to make, or a piece of furniture I should like to buy. The more trivial the thought the more easily you slip off to sleep.

Discouraged:—At this season of the year there are a number of simple skin bleaches among the vegetables or fruit. Among those are cucumbers, tomatoes, strawberries and at all times you can use lemons.

Disheartened:—The wax that is used for removing the hair does not destroy its growth. It is heated and pressed into the hair and when it cools the whole thing is ripped off, bringing the hair with it. But it has no effect upon the roots. It is a quick, although distressing method of clearing the face.

W. J. C.—The eyelash formula will be mailed to you if you send a stamped addressed envelope repeating the request.

Tomorrow—The Miracle Worker.

Styles

BY LENORE

Since the early Spring openings practically all the models shown confirm the long, slender silhouette as the definitely established mode for evening. Sometimes, indeed, the material is draped about the figure in a fashion which is certainly disastrous to any but the best formed figure, and trains appear on many dresses.

As to the placing of the train whether you prefer it in the back, or on one side of the gown or the other, is a matter of indifference to Dame Fashion. In such details she is extremely liberal this year. Slenderness and harmony of line are all that really matter. As for slenderness the side panel may be depended on.

The white crepe marocain gown shown here was worn at a recent dinner by the wife of America's leading designers. Black lace was used for the neck and panels, and flat silk roses for the girdle, while monkey fur of the armholes and around the waistline supplied that up-to-the-minute final touch without which no new gown is really new to some women.

TWO DIE IN CAVEIN

Greenville, May 24.—Jack Myers, 45, and Job Deleplain, 27, were killed, and Waldo Rank was probably fatally injured here yesterday when a sewer ditch on which they were working caved in. Myers and Deleplain were buried under nine feet of earth and suffocated.

Steak-Kidney Pie

Coffee Rhubarb Pie

Steak-Kidney Pie: Cut one pound of raw steak into very small pieces with a sharp knife and brown these pieces in the frying pan with a little bacon fat, then cover them with boiling water, add a medium size onion sliced finely, and let simmer for one-half hour. Now add two lamb's kidneys, also cut small, and salt and pepper to suit individual taste. Let it continue to simmer until both the steak and the kidneys are tender and the liquor in the frying pan is reduced to about a cupful. Then thicken the mixture by stirring into it 2 tablespoons of flour mixed to a paste with cold water, and turn all into a baking dish, or casserole. Add one-half teaspoon of Worcester Sauce for flavoring (if liked), or one teaspoon of tomato catsup, and cover the dish with the following Potato Crust: Mix one heaping cupful of creamy cooked, mashed potato with one tablespoon of melted butter, one-half cup of sweet milk, and one-half cup of flour which has been sifted with one heaping teaspoon of baking powder. Brush over with more melted butter and place the pie in a hot oven till well browned. Serve hot.

Rhubarb Pie: Beat one egg and add to it a cup of granulated sugar, one cup of rhubarb sliced into very small pieces, two soda crackers rolled fine, a pinch of salt, one-half cup of chopped seeded raisins, one-half teaspoon of ground nutmeg and two heaping tablespoons of butter cut into tiny pieces. Line a pie pan with uncooked pastry, turn this rhubarb mixture into it, and cover the top with strips of uncooked pastry laid lattice-fashion.

Dean & Barry's Farm Implement Paint

Farm implements should periodically be given a coat of paint. Without this "armor" of protection they will rapidly rust and deteriorate because they are constantly exposed to all kinds of weather.

DEAN & BARRY have produced a paint for this very purpose. It will prolong the life of wagons, trucks, tractors, implements, iron work, etc. Then, too, well kept implements greatly improve the general appearance of a farm.

We are prepared to furnish DEAN & BARRY'S farm implement paint in any quantity and in all standard colors.

HOME COMING WILL NOT BE GIVEN THIS YEAR IS DECISION

The Home Coming, proposed by the Chamber of Commerce for early in July will not be staged this year according to a decision made by Chamber of Commerce officials.

The Home Coming celebration has been called off because of the early date set for it and the possibility of not being able to arrange plans for the affair in time, as only a few weeks remain.

It was proposed to have the Home Coming during the week of July 3, in conjunction with the annual pupils reunion of the O. S. & S. O. Home and also to have the Community Picnic, an annual affair, the same week. The committee in charge was appointed but the plan abandoned because of the lack of time in which to prepare for the celebration.

If Xenia is not successful in obtaining the 1923 encampment of the United Spanish-American War Veterans, the Home Coming may be staged next year. If the encampment is to be held next year, however, the Home Coming will not be held then but plans will be made to hold such a celebration within the next few years, as Xenia has not had a Home Coming since 1908.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Start with Natures Herbs and Roots to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Acids.
Help your kidneys—don't overtax them. Lighten your diet a little; eat less meat; drink lots of water and milk; avoid rich food.
Our blood is filled with uric acid and toxins which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork become sluggish; thus the pores get clogged and create all sorts of distress resulting in kidney trouble or bladder weakness and eventually in Bright's Disease, Diabetes or Gravel. If you have the slightest pain in the kidney region don't neglect it or delay; flush your kidneys kidneys with this restorative so that they may regain their normal activity. Dr. Carey's PRESCRIPTION NO. 777 also neutralizes irritating acids, thus ending bladder weakness. Dr. Carey's PRESCRIPTION NO. 777 is inexpensive, harmless and is made from nature's herbs, roots and barks and is recommended by doctors. It never disappoints and has had 50 years of success for kidney and bladder troubles. Sayre & Hemphill and all druggists have Dr. Carey's PRESCRIPTION No. 777. Sure relief or money back on large bottle (Tablets or Liquid.)

The Most Acceptable Wedding Gift

There is no worthier gift for the bride than The Brunswick. Nothing is so certain to bring cheer into her new home. Its grace and beauty of design and its matchless tone have made it a standard by which to judge all phonographs.

The Brunswick Method of Tone Reproduction caused a sensation in musical circles. It has revolutionized tone reproduction and projection. Harsh, metallic sounds have been eliminated; all records, regardless of make, can be played with a new quality of tone on The Brunswick.

We shall be glad to play this great instrument for you — to demonstrate the Ultona all record reproducer and the new all-wood Tone Amplifier. One hearing will convince you this is the final-type phonograph.

SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS GAINED

—in deposits by Ohio Building Associations last year—a year of financial and commercial depression—shows the rapidly growing popularity of the building association investment in Ohio.

There are good reasons why this should be so. In 18 years no depositor in an Ohio Building Association has lost even one of the Hundreds of Millions of Dollars which they hold and the investment is now regarded as being dependable under all conditions. Then, because of the nature of their business and the methods employed, their expenses amount to less than 1% of their assets, enabling them to pay higher rates of Dividends and Interest than is possible for most savings institutions.

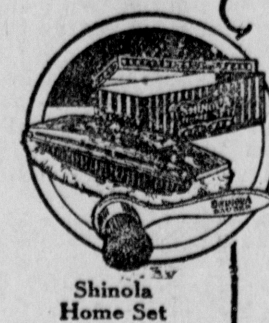

Let us tell you why this association last year gained $1,300,000—and why we can give you conveniences not combined in any other investment yielding as good returns.

EARL BURGNER TO COACH XENIA HIGH SCHOOL NEXT YEAR

Earl "Puss" Burgner, for the last two years star quarterback on the Wittenburg College, Springfield, eleven will succeed Coach Jerry L. Katherman at the Central High School, next year, it was announced Wednesday by school authorities.

Burgner will begin his duties here next fall, and will have charge of all branches of athletics, as well as teaching several classes in the science department. His salary is said to be considerably less than that received by the retiring coach, in accordance with the retrenchment policy put in effect by the school authorities for next year.

Burgner is a well-known Wittenburg athlete and his training under Coach Ernest Godfrey of the Lutherans, it is thought, will help him considerably in making a success on his first venture as a coach. As a member of the Lutheran eleven for the last two years, as quarterback he had an excellent opportunity to learn football generalship and he has been linked up with the stars who have made the Springfield school famous on the gridiron since the ascendancy of the star of Godfrey.

Burgner is one of a number of Godfrey-trained athletes who have obtained coaching positions after leaving Wittenburg. Among them are "Wib" Eter, Raymond Detrick, Bill Lange, "Dutch" Trautwein, Ruben Bechtel and Russel Burdette. When Burgner comes to Xenia next fall, fans figure he will have over-shoes to fill in taking the place of Coach Katherman, who developed the first championship football team that ever presented Central High finishing the season without a defeat. The new coach will also have a record to shoot at in basketball, as the present mentor's cagers made themselves heard for the first time in a state tournament at Delaware this year, and won 17 out of 24 games under harassing conditions.

Burgner will find plenty of football and basketball material at Central High next year, thanks to his predecessor. Owing to the abundance of material which Coach Katherman always kept on hand, Coach Burgner will have a complete veteran line, and three or four veteran backfieldmen left for his football squad next year, in spite of the inroads made by graduation. A similar condition will result in basketball, where at least four regular court stars will survive the commencement and be back in sport togs next year.

Regular football linemen who will be again eligible next year are: Purdom and Cowan at the ends; Hendrickson and Ballentyne at the tackles; Captain-elect Don Currie and Smith at the guards and Bob Yeakley, center. Lost by graduation are Davids, Ferguson and Douthett, guards and Reutinger, ends. Substitutes last fall, who should develop into regulars this year are The Keller brothers, George and Karl, Boroff, N. McCallister, Lane, Jordan and a number of others. The new coach will find veteran backfield material in Fuller and Randall, half-backs and Arthur Currie, quarterback, while Boxwell, McCallister and Lones, are the backfield stars lost by graduation. In basketball next year Coach-elect Burgner will have such veterans as Captain-elect Yeakley, D. Currie, Gagner and Vannoradall. Veterans of this year's squad who graduate are Boxwell, Lones, Douthett and Reutinger.

The new coach will face a stiff football schedule next fall, arranged by Coach Katherman on the basis of the record made by the team last fall. The schedule follows: September 29, Greenville at Xenia; October 6, Troy at Xenia; October 13, Wilmington at Xenia; October 20, Piqua at Xenia; October 27, Hillsboro at Hillsboro; November 3, London at London; November 11, Greenfield McClain at Xenia; November 18, Washington C. H. at Xenia and November 25, Springfield at Springfield.

CHAPLIN WOULD KEEP MOTHER HERE LONGER

Washington, May 24.—Immigration authorities are investigating the conditions upon which Hannah Chaplin, the aged and shell-shocked mother of Charles Chaplin, motion picture actor, and Sidney Chaplin is permitted to remain in the United States.

This became known with the issuance of an order by E. J. Hennings, Assistant Secretary of Labor, granting stay of time to enable Mrs. Chaplin and counsel employed by her sons to present legal grounds for permitting her to be a semi-permanent resident in the United States.

Mrs. Chaplin herself an actress it was explained was deranged mentally by shocks suffered during one of the first of the German aerial raids on London during the war. After the war ended her sons desired to take her to California to give her environment and treatment which would ease her condition and possibly, it was hoped, restore her reason.

After difficulty she received permission to enter the United States and remain for one year. This time has expired and the question has arisen whether or not a longer period of residence legally can be allowed to her.

Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

By Mrs. George Elliott McCormick.

The program for the Lakeside Federation of Women's Clubs' annual convention at Lakeside is beginning to take definite shape. The convention will be conducted July 12 and 13. Mrs. Robert C. Morris, Toledo, chairman of literature for the state federation will appear on the program both days. Representative Simon D. Fess, of the Seventh Ohio district, chairman of the house committee on education, will deliver the principal address of the afternoon of Wednesday, July 12, his subject being "Education from a Federal Standpoint." Dr. Owen R. Lovejoy, New York City, secretary of the National Child Labor committee, will speak Wednesday morning and Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Texas, chairman of the General federation's citizenship committee is to address the gathering Wednesday evening. Mrs. Cornelius F. Selover, Cleveland, state federation president; Miss Genevieve R. Cline, Cleveland, chairman of the state federation's legislative committee, and Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, former state federation president and now a member of the Ohio advisory board of motion-picture censorship, will have places on the program. Some interesting musical numbers will be given.

Lakeside federation officers include Mrs. Thomas J. Maxwell, Fremont, president; Mrs. Eva E. Hills, Lorain, vice president; Mrs. E. F. Schultz, Elyria, secretary; Mrs. Arthur R. Black, Port Clinton, auditor and Mrs. R. C. Blum, Amherst, treasurer.

Miss Elizabeth Haymaker, Ravenna, vice president of the Northeast conference of the state federation, is delighted with her district pledge of $2,000 for the General Federation home in Washington. Of this amount the Cleveland federation pledged one half. The Northeast district convention at East Palestine was a pronounced success.

The hospitality of the East Palestine federation members was most generous and a spirit of friendliness predominated. A conference on club problems led by Mrs. J. H. Brooks, East Liverpool, was decidedly interesting and most helpful. The convention voted down the proposed memorial at Camp Sherman, going on record as favoring a war memorial at such time as conditions would appear to warrant it. Twelve new clubs were added to the district Akron will entertain the next conference session in the fall.

The Civic Lecture course, sponsored by the Dayton federation, is a little unique in its way. Six lectures were given during the winter, combining literary, art, travel and dramatic subjects at a total cost not exceeding $1,200. This also included two lectures given in addition by Mrs. Robert C. Morris, Toledo, chairman of the state federation's literature committee. Other speakers were John Powys, Richard Burton, Dhan Gopal Mukerji, Frederick Ward, Harry A. Frank and Stoughton Holborn. Every lecture on the regular course was an author, and the course was designed as an aid to reading, either the speakers own works or the books they talked about. This was the third year of the course, which is financed by subscription and sale of single seats. Mrs. Charles H. Kummer has been its chairman from the beginning. The course will be opened again on Oct. 16 by the big production of the "Book of Job as put on by St. Walker and the company which gave it in New York. The course's lecturers are all selected by popular vote.

FOUR DANCING FEET

BY JANE PHELPS

Chapter 52.

All day it rained, a steady down-pour. About 4 o'clock Tom Norris came. A few moments after he arrived, the doctor came in to see how his little patient was getting along. Tom asked if he might take Tim tomorrow, and the doctor replied:

"Take him whenever you can! It'll be a real kindness, do you good, eh, Tim?"

"You bet!"

"Be careful getting him down the stairs, and have him perfectly comfortable before you start and it will be all right."

Mrs. Cummings had made little gingerbread cakes, and served them with tea. Even the doctor had been prevailed upon to remain and partake of the simple hospitality, but whether it was a desire for the cakes, or curiosity concerning Tom Norris, that kept him it would be hard to say. He ate the cakes with relish; and he watched Tom keenly from under his saggy brows. He scarcely knew what to make of an intimacy between this young man, and the Cummings family.

Tom left soon after the doctor did. He had a dinner engagement at the Waltons, and must go to the club to dress. Those dress clothes—Lilly called them "waiter's clothes"—he was going to put them on to go to dinner with his own kind. He would never think of putting them on if he had dinner in his flat.

"What a fool I am!" Gerlie said to herself, "he'd look nice coming here with all that rigging on. Of course he has to dress up when he goes with that friend of his, that Mr. Walton, Oh, dear! I wish Lilly hadn't told me about seeing him."

"Stop thinking and talk to me, Gerlie!" Tim's voice broke in upon her thought. "Did you hear him say he was coming in the morning? Nine o'clock! Gee, but ain't he the real cheese all right? I hope he keeps me out all day."

"He won't, dear, so don't set your heart on it. He'll probably give you just a short ride at first, to see how you stand it."

"Stand it! If it hurt like blazes I wouldn't say anything! I ain't never had a real auto ride! Just catching on trucks; and since Ma made me promise not to do that no more I ain't had any rides at all."

"I hope it will be pleasant, dearie," Gerlie kissed him then left for the Olympic, her heart heavy, all the brightness she had felt over Tom's coming gone.

The next day dawned bright and lovely, and at 9 o'clock Tom came to take Tim for a ride. Ordinarily Gerlie never thought of getting up; her mother made a strict rule that she should stay in bed until noon because of her late hours at the cafe. But this morning she had broken the rule, and no one seemed to think it strange.

In the excitement of getting Tim off she only spoke once to Tom. She had

But this morning she had broken the rule, and no one seemed to think it strange.

In the excitement of getting Tim off she only spoke once to Tom. She had kissed Tim, laughing with him over something he whispered in her ear then turned and said to Tom:

"Thank you for being so good to Tim."

"It is a pleasure," he had returned as he picked Tim up in his strong arms and carried him down the stairs and then placed him comfortably in the machine; the family all watching from the window, Gerlie a little behind the others.

He raised his hat, and Tim waved an arm, his face one great expansive smile, as they drove off.

"Bless the lad," Mrs. Cummings said wiping her eyes. No one asked who she meant, whether Tom or her little Tim. She invariably wept a little when anything stirred her emotions—whether joyfully or sadly.

"Come, Ma! I'm all dressed, let's go shopping. The work can wait. I'll get a hat, and perhaps a dress."

Gerlie had suddenly thought of the young woman Lilly had so graphically described after she had seen Tom with her at the theater. Tom perhaps cared more how a girl looked than she had thought. Of course she never could have anything like that girl, but if she had a pretty new hat and either a dress or a cloak he might think she looked nice. Her face grew wistful at the thought.

She and her mother shopped for an hour, and found the hat and cloak

The Thrifty Citizen Who Caught the Plugged Nickel

MR. BROWN had swallowed his lunch and had paid his bill. Cautiously he counted his change. "Here!" he said, sharply, "Take back this plugged nickel and give me a good one!"

Mr. Brown walked proudly out. They couldn't fool old Brown.

But old Brown had fooled himself.

Brown's day was heavy and dull. He lacked "pep." There was a mid-afternoon drowsy spell when he needed to be awake—the direct and natural result of heavy, starchy breakfasts and lunches, taken on faith and without question as to value—just because the food looked and tasted like food.

Thousands of shrewd business men who count their change, take their food for granted.

That's what builds up the sanitarian business, and puts the tired "all-done" feeling into the mid-afternoon of a business day.

Grape-Nuts is a scientific food whose delicious, appetizing flavor and crispness are an introduction to well-balanced nourishment—a nourishment easily and quickly assimilated, so that body, brain and nerves are well fed and kept free of the stored-up poisons left by so many ill-selected foods.

Served with cream or good milk, Grape-Nuts is a complete food, always ready, always a delight to the taste—and always a safe selection for the man who thinks his stomach is entitled to some of the protection he gives his pocket.
